

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE TWELFTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT
IN AND FOR SARASOTA COUNTY, FLORIDA

MANASOTA FLOORING, INC.,

Plaintiff,

vs.

Case No. 2018-CA-1252 NC

MORGAN WALLACE and ARLIE WALLACE,

Defendants.

ORDER ON MOTION TO TRANSFER CAUSE TO COUNTY COURT

THIS CAUSE was considered upon Plaintiff's Motion to Transfer Cause to County Court, and it appearing that there exists an administrative order controlling this situation authorizing the assigned circuit judge county court jurisdiction, it is,

ORDERED and ADJUDGED as follows:

1. This cause is hereby transferred to county court upon payment of the required fee. A county court case number will thereupon be assigned.
2. If the moving party has not paid the transfer fee within thirty days of the filing of this order, then this order shall be vacated automatically and the moving party's pleadings shall be deemed to seek relief not exceeding jurisdiction of circuit court.
3. (check one)

_____ The undersigned Circuit Court Judge, or this division's successor judge, shall serve as the presiding county judge until the case is resolved. The Clerk shall designate the county case number in the following format: Case No. 2018 CA 1252, PENDING IN CIRCUIT COURT DIVISION E, and all counsel shall so designate all pleadings hereafter. If, thereafter, the case needs to be randomly reassigned, the reassignment shall be to the county civil division assigned when the county case number was obtained.

_____ The undersigned Circuit Court Judge declines to hear the matter as an Acting County Judge and the Clerk is directed to randomly assign the matter to a County Judge.

DONE and SIGNED in Chambers at Sarasota, Florida, on this the 21st day of August 2018.

HUNTER CARROLL,
Circuit Court/Acting County Judge

Copies to:
Michael A. France, Esquire
Christopher A. Staine, Esquire